Fly!

Fly further out!

We must find the Earth!

Maybe I went too far!

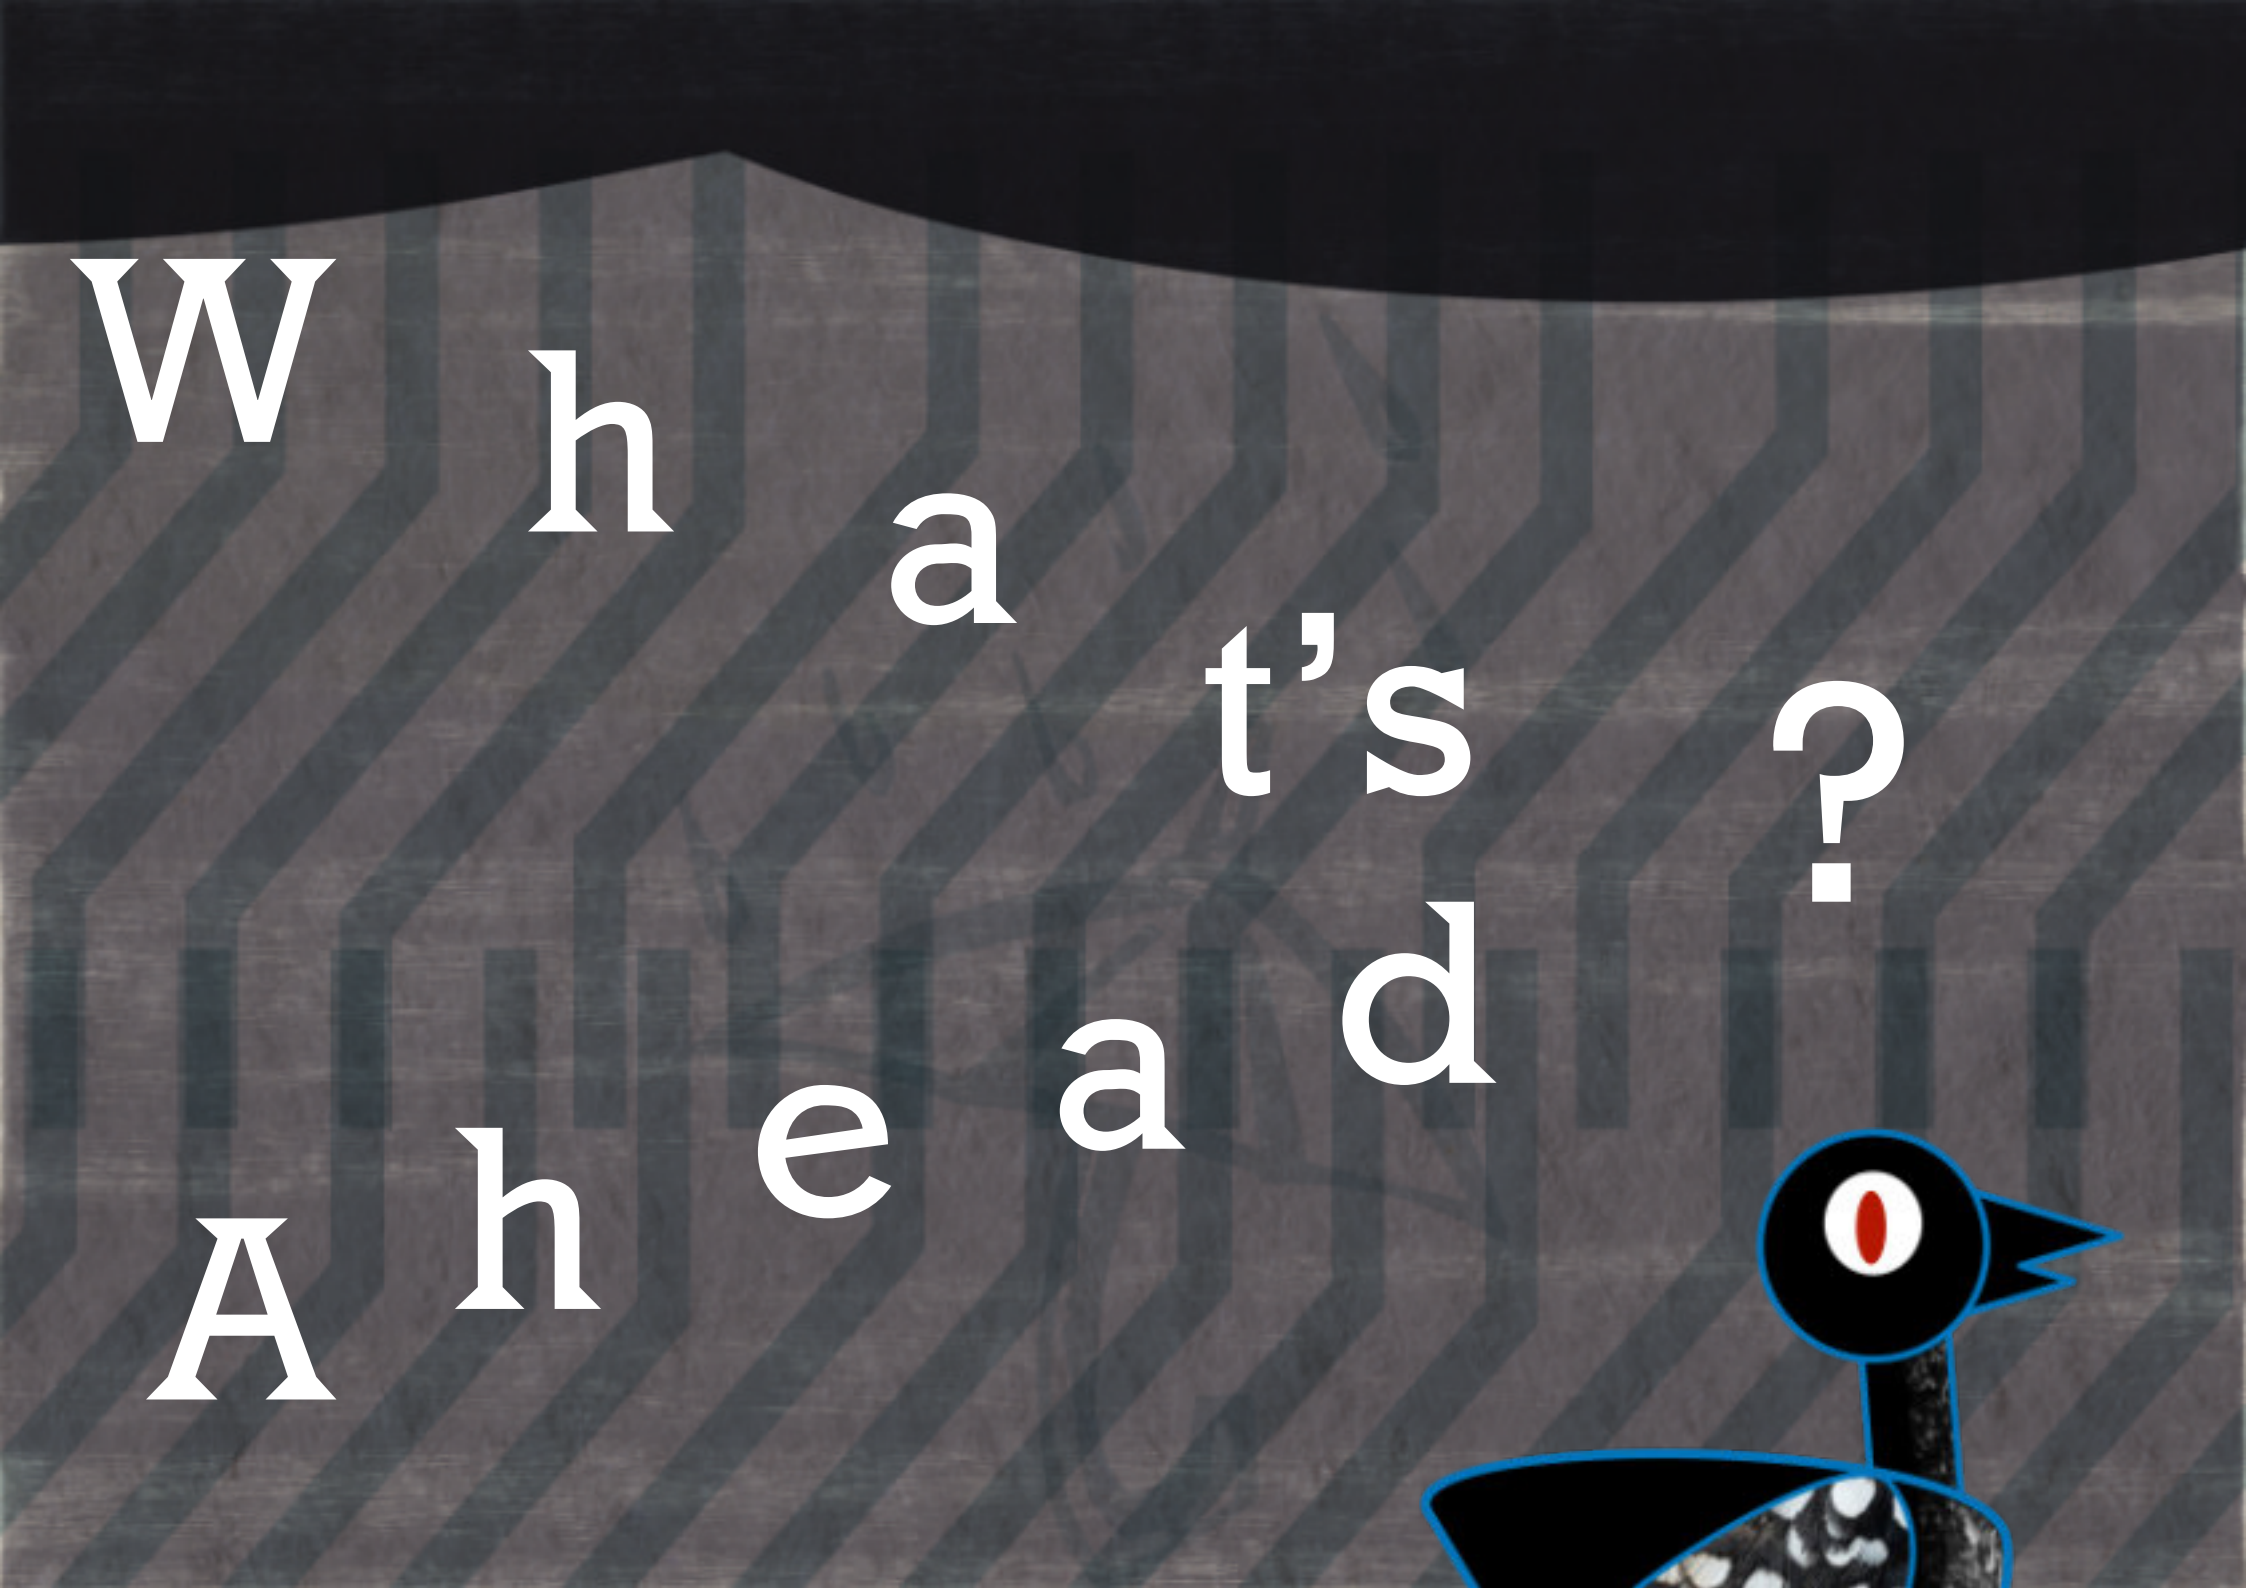

This is good,
but not the whole story

Earth is definitely outside,

But where does Earth
BEGIN???

Let's venture Inward!

This

modern home

Isn't

bad either!

I still can't find the origin!

We must go through the

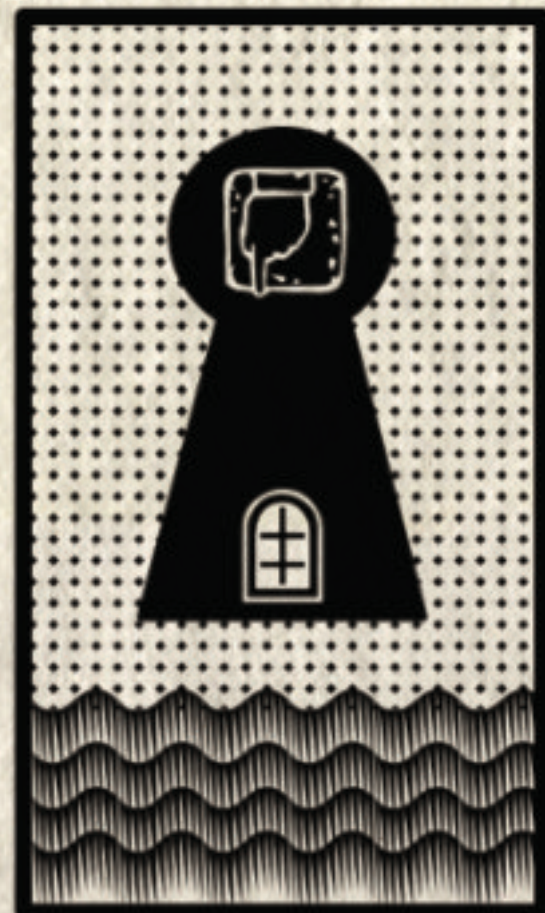

Gateway to
* DREAMS

I know

Earth's here

somewhere

It's eluded me
My dreams of Earth

Where to look now?

Happy Earth Day everyone!

To me, Earth Day is about finding where love for Earth begins. We want to love the world because it changes us inside out.

I hope that this year brings Earth and us closer together, both in our dreams and on our walks and talks.

Earth is worth it, and so are we!
